

Amazing Grace

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me
I once was lost, but now am found
Was blind, but now I see
'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear
And grace my fear relieved
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed
When we've been there ten thousand years
Bright shining as the sun
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we'd first begun

God Will Make a Way

God will make a way where there seems to be no way
He works in ways we cannot see
He will make a way for me
He will be my guide, hold me closely to His side
With love and strength for each new day
He will make a way
He will make a way
By a roadway in the wilderness He'll lead me
And rivers in the desert will I see
Heaven and earth will fade
But His Word will still remain
He will do something new today

My peace I give unto you
It's a peace that the world cannot give
It's a peace that the world cannot understand
Peace to know, peace to live
My peace I give unto you

Let us find our ultimate hope in God, our Lord Jesus Christ:
Therefore, being always of good courage, and knowing that while we are at home in the body we are absent from the Lord -- for we walk by faith, not by sight -- we are of good courage, I say, and prefer rather to be absent from the body and to be at home with the Lord. (2 Corinthians 5:6-8)

Daniel was born on June 10th, 1997 at Parkview Community Hospital in Riverside, CA. Ever since he was born, Daniel was cherished. He was the only grandson born in a long line of granddaughters. Daniel celebrated his first birthday in China with a party of over 60 relatives. As a toddler Daniel didn't talk very much, he liked to use his own version of sign language to express himself. But once Daniel learned to talk, and was comfortable with talking it was hard to get him to be quiet.

I always wanted a younger sibling, so now that there was Daniel I was eager to help with bottle feeding, diaper changing, and reading to him. In 2002, Daniel started Kindergarten at Montevideo Elementary. At school he learned how to read, and after reading Harry Potter, his curiosity was ignited and it was hard to find him without a book in his hand.

Daniel also loved to play games whether it was Yugioh and Pokemon cards, monopoly or DDR. If you didn't want to play the game, he would teach you, or let you win a few times just so you would play with him. We would play Dragon Ball Z on PS2 and Daniel would always let me win a couple times just so I would think I was doing well in the game, and then he'd beat me.

Daniel always had a very laidback attitude about life and didn't sweat the small stuff, but was able to learn many things effortlessly. He was a very vibrant, intelligent, and energetic brother. I'm going to miss his smile with his multiple dimples a lot. -Sister

Daniel, you brought us enormous happiness for eleven years. We are very proud to have you as our son. No words can express our pain for the loss. We will miss you forever, Daniel.
